To All Instructors, Schools and Friends;

We at Nylynn Cosmetics wish to let you know the current prices for your School's Back Bar products, kits, certification class fees and we now have a make-up tester unit for you to order! We are also pleased to announce only 1 kit price increase for the calendar year!

For existing partner schools, I welcome you to call to set up classes, go over purchase orders and assist you with anything I can. Classes are booked on a first come basis so call ASAP to ensure you get the dates you need.

As for new schools with Nylynn or if you are interested in any of our kits or classes, I welcome your call. We have been a partner company to The Professional Beauty School Industry for over 30 years! As your needs have grown, we too have grown to assist you. We offer existing kits but if your needs won't work with existing kits we can custom make one for you. The minimum order will change but that is it. Many of our certification classes are accredited with TDLR for CE hours. Many kits come with certification classes at no extra fee.

We look forward to continued success with Beauty Institutions to promote the best educated future professionals we can. Please feel free to call me Deidra Gochneur @1-800-336-9596 or call me on my cell @ 972-979-2181 so that I can personally assist you and your school's needs.

Sincerely,

Deidra Gochneur
